Stitch'n Through The Decades

I wondered what a crochet cruise would look like if we did something that reflected our love for retro and history? While thinking back to when I was fourteen years old and learning to crochet, I realize how much has changed. The colour and project trends have changed along with the implements and the resources that we have. I never imagined that I could access patterns through a computer screen. Let alone, find them for free!

Sometimes in social media we see retro and historical patterns re-surface.

- When is the last time you saw men wearing crochet shorts?
- Have you seen crochet nose warmers?

AND No. we are not going to make Granny Square Shorts or nose warmers LOL.

This cruise, we are looking behind us with some projects that have been inspired by the past but may have an added current colour spin, stitch idea or even technique.

Brands like Bernat, Caron, Red Heart and Patons have been around for generations. These brands have archival collections of patterns and sometimes these patterns come back around recoloured and styled differently.

Our educational sponsor, Yarnspirations, is helping us bring this crochet cruise through the decades. Yarnspirations is the main hub of Spinrite Yarns which has the yarns we've come to love. I've really enjoyed the privilege of teaching patterns on their behalf. In 2011, I had no idea what I was doing, but luckily, a few people saw vision in me and gave me a once in a lifetime opportunity to do what I do best, to educate from a passionate point of view. It's a true honour.

You can visit their website at www.yarnspirations.com. Yarnspirations spark your inspiration!

At the end of my tutorials I say, on behalf of The Crochet Crowd and my friends at Yarnspirations.com. I'm wishing to see you next time, the two million plus crocheters in our combined communities and also on behalf of tens of thousands of employees it takes to create yarn, design projects, creating raw materials, shipping, retail jobs and so much more that it takes to bring these yarns to you. Professionally speaking, this is one of the best highlights of my life's journey.

Like this cruise, it's a journey. Your purchases of the trusted brands support the journeys of tens of thousands of individuals you will never know. So, join us and let's look backward to cruise forward. We'll dance, swim, tour laugh and crochet the winter blues aways! We can't wait to see all of ya!

Advance Notifications, Thoughts and Laughs

All cruisers will be getting notices from The Crochet Crowd in advance of the Crochet Cruises with any reminders and updates through the following social media outlets:

1. Notices will be posted to our dedicated Facebook private group. It's strongly advised to check in and be part our Facebook group once in a while to ensure you are in the know of potential changes. Other crochet cruisers are also sharing tips and advice as well. We understand that some may not use Facebook often; however, this is OUR primary means of communicating. Over the past, we have found it to be far more effective to reach the vast majority of you. Plus, it also create an exciting engagement of conversations. If you are not on the Private Facebook Page please contact Jeanne.

2. You can always check our dedicated website, Crochet-Cruises.com for updates as well. This site gets update periodically.

3. Occasionally, a mass email may be sent out. We have found that email is not an effective tool, as many claimed that they did not get emails or it went to their junk folder, forgot, didn't check it, and etc. We only send emails of high importance with hopes that everyone receives them. As always, the same information will be posted on the Facebook private group page. Check your spam/junk boxes if we have sent an email.

4. This handbook will have the most important and helpful information before your adventures begins. It will address our charity project, shore excursions, and so on. Please read it throughly. Sherry and the private Facebook pages are here to help with any questions. If this is your first time on a cruise, you are in for a real treat. Don't be nervous. Our past cruisers, Sherry and ourselves, will give the assurance that you are in capable hands.

Online Check In

1-800-647-2251

Celebrity  Cruises®

It is strongly advised you start your on-line check-in at least 60 days before the cruise to provide your personal information to be ready for embarkation day, aka sail away day. Also have a clean picture ready to download. We have now stepped into the 21st century where facial recognition technology is being used. Please check for spelling of your name, address and personal identification info.

You can add cruise enhancements such as: specialty dining, spa treatments, wifi packages, beverage packages and excursions etc, through the same link.

By doing this, it allows the ship to have a complete manifest of all of the passengers on board the ship. The manifest is extremely important as it is required by US Coast Guard and, most importantly, for your safety.

Doing this in advance saves a lot of time at the port terminal. All of the information you are entering on-line in advance is exactly what the agent will be asking of you while at the terminal. This will allow you to quickly check-in and get on with your Crochet Cruise much faster.

You can only get your luggage tags if room balance is paid in full 45 days before sailing date. This is also when you can print your boarding passes. You will need to pick an appointment time for arrival. We are recommending 1130 am.

Crochet Crowd Cruise Cancellations

In the unfortunate event that an emergency has occurred and that you will not be able to cruise with us, please note that there are certain procedures to follow:

Your cruise tickets were arranged through our cruise agent. You will need to contact our agent, Sherry, to advise her of the situation. A contract has been made with your cruise ticket purchase. Cancellation fees may apply. If a full refund cannot be offered due to Celebrity's regulations, Sherry can check to see if you have any other options. Please get insurance. It has help Many that have travelled with us.

The Activity Administration Fee to The Crochet Crowd is non-refundable as stated in our registration. Certain expenses have already been paid in advance based on your commitment to go.

Any passengers who do not show up and/or cancel are not entitled to the gifts or course materials being given on board. All items are shipped directly to the ship from our sponsor. As per the sponsors' request and the cruise line guidelines, we will not be able to give gift packages to friends on the ship to passengers who have canceled, nor mail them out after the cruise is completed.

Airport / Transportation/Hotel

Please make your arrangements for your flights. We have been using Celebrity for our personal arrangements with Sherry. Arranging with Celebrity often has great deals and they guarantee that if you missed your ship due to flight delays or cancellations, they will fly you to the next port of call. Also when arranging your flights back home, PLEASE, and a word of advice, do not book anything before 11 am. Make sure your flight is to and from Fort Lauderdale.

Our cruise hotel is ready to start reserving and can be done so by clicking by going to our Private Facebook Cruise Page and/or by clicking on the following hotel link. We will be staying at the Homewood Suites Fort Lauderdale Airport and Cruise Port. The hotel provides complimentary airport transfers when flying into Fort Lauderdale.

The cost for the hotel is $269/night plus tax (based on either one or two guests in the room) and includes breakfast each morning. Third and fourth guests in the room will incur an additional charge of $10/day per each additional person. Transportation to the cruise port is included in the above price. These prices are valid for the dates of Feb 21/2020 and Feb 22/2020. A credit card is required to guarantee your room reservation. You will not be billed for the room until check-in. However, any room cancellations will need to be done no later January 20th, 2020. Any cancellations done after this date will incur a one night room and tax penalty. If you are driving to the port; parking is available for $10/day while on the cruise.

If any concerns, contact Sherry. She is there to always help.

Customized Crochet Cruises Badges

All Crochet Cruisers will be receiving a custom made badge with lanyard that is encouraged to be worn during our workshops. Cruisers, you will get your badges for those at the hotel with us pre-cruise and cruisers arriving same day of departure will get them at the first meet up on the ship.

The badges will have the Crochet Cruises Itinerary for classes, stitch socials and gatherings on the back. The front will have your first name, and the state or province where you are from.

Please wear your badge at all classes. It helps everyone to get to know each other, even when just meeting informally. These badges are great for putting your ship card in and door prize tickets too.

Please note, if you prefer a different name then your legal name or what is on your email, you need to email us at Sherry@cruisesforu.com and tell us your legal name, which cruise you are on, state/province and what to change your name to. You have until Jan 31, 2020 to give us the updates.

For example, your full name might be Elizabeth, but maybe you prefer to be called Beth. Just let us know. Badges are shipped ahead of time and cannot be changed. Please, no names like happy hooker or knotty nicknames, we would like everyone to be respectful.

Mikey loves to collect pins! Who will beat him this cruise?

Plus... We love seeing what crocheters did to personalize their crochet bags using tchotchkes.

Have ID, Passport & Cruise Tickets Ready

Whether you are going to the port on a shuttle or driving to the port with friends & family, you must have all your ID (Driver's Licenses for US Citizens and passports) and cruise tickets ready to present. You will be asked to show your cruise tickets at the entrance of the pier terminal before they let you pass through. PLEASE NOTE, ALL passengers must have passports. It is worth getting it done and to be happy that you have a passport. DO NOT put the above identification in your checked luggage. You must have it ready in your hands.

Curb Side Checked Luggage

When you do the advance check-in completely on-line, you will be able to print your luggage tags to be affixed to your checked luggage. If you don't check-in on-line, crew members will check your boarding tickets and write you a luggage tag to put onto your suitcases on the spot.

There will be crew with carts taking your luggage when you arrive at the curb of the terminal, they are in uniform. Your luggage should have your name and cabin number on a tag affixed to the handle. Crew members will have staplers to affix your tag if needed. If you have forgotten your luggage tag, the agent will check your cruise ticket and make you a quick luggage tag on the spot and attach to your luggage in front of you.

You will not see your luggage again until it magically arrives outside of your cabin door later on in the afternoon and/or early evening of embarkation day.

If you want to tip the curbside porter, it's usually about $2 - $3 per bag.

Carry Ons

Small suitcases and carry on bags can be walked through security. Ensure that you have everything you need as you will not see your checked luggage for several hours. Keep medicine, valuables and critical items with you.

PLEASE MAKE SURE YOUR TICKETS and ID ARE WITH YOU, DO NOT PUT THEM IN YOUR CURB SIDE LUGGAGE.

Security

We all hate going through security but for the safety of the ship and everyone else, we all must pass through the metal detectors. Once in the terminal, you will be directed to a security check point. Follow the instructions and guides, smile, and be calm. You are much closer to the start of your vacation. For ease of this process, please have just one carry-on, like a purse, or a tote bag. Truth be told, the most cranky passengers are the ones trying to carry everything themselves. We all hate dragging luggage. So the less you carry, the quicker you can get to the buffet.

What is Allowed to Come on Board Bringing Alcohol or Beverages On Board

Celebrity will allow one bottle of wine per guest age 21 or older to be brought on-board. All other beverage options are not allowed. This includes water, soft drinks and all forms of alcohol.

With Celebrity, you can purchase a beverage package which also includes water. When you 'Check In' you can add these packages to your account if you do not already have them. The Go Best package is a great deal, more info can be found further in this handbook, ask Sherry.

If you bring more than you are supposed to, it will be confiscated and held for you to pick up at the end of your cruise. All luggage, including checked baggage is x-rayed. Alcohol or beverages in your checked baggage will be removed and held for you to be picked up at the end of the cruise.

Crochet Hooks & Scissors

Scissors cannot be more than 4" long and must be in your checked luggage only. All checked luggage and carry ons are x-rayed. Scissors must remain in your checked baggage and not carried on with you.

Crochet Hooks are classified as a weapon. Hooks are to be in your carry on luggage with you for the security to inspect. You shouldn't have any problems, just leave your scissors in your checked baggage and you will be fine. Add a small ball of yarn too.

After Security

Go to Check-In Counter or Agent

Celebrity has changed it's process for boarding. Easier and quicker. If you have already checked in on-line, they are just going to ask you to provide your cruise tickets, verify credit info and see your official identification to confirm your photo. Have everything with you just in case something on-line didn't go through properly.

Please note, Celebrity now puts your ship card on the door of your cabin. Once you are on the ship you can retrieve your card(s). The 'ship card' is your New Plastic ID and your spending account. You do not use money on board the ship. This ship card opens your statement door, purchases for drinks, on board shopping, casino and specialty restaurants. It is also your confirmation that you are a passenger on board Celebrity when you get on and off at the ports. Carry it at all times.

If you are setting up a Cash Account for your ship cards, you will do so at one of the counters. Those accounts will be monitored and handled on the ship throughout your cruise.

Health Declaration will be asked

The Celebrity official will ask basic information if you have been sick in the past 30 days. Our advice, pump up the Vitamin C or any herbal preventative prior to the cruise. Get the body moving with a bit of exercise a few weeks before the cruise, increase your walk steps or be a bit more active. Traveling is stressful for the body especially if your body is not use to it.

Sit & Wait

If you are early, you will just sit in the lounge and wait for instructions. Boarding the ship will usually start until around 11 am or later. The cruise line must have customs security clearance before allowing any new passengers on board.

The Gangway - Advance Assistance Notice

*NOTE* The gangway, the bridge that reaches to the ship, can be steep. It's a significant incline up and a bit of a walk. If you need assistance to go up the ramp or assistance to get off the ship, you need to make sure you contact Sherry, our agent, to have those arrangements made in advance. They have dedicated crew members helping passengers and you must be on the list to have help walking up or pushing up a wheelchair etc .

Life
Just Got Better...

Welcome Aboard

NOW the FUN begins! The moment you step in on board Celebrity you are greeted with Champagne or a non-alcoholic drink. Celebrity Infinity has everything you need, lovely decor, lounges to watch the entertainment and areas to hang out. Your cabins will likely not be ready around 2 pm. This gives you time to walk around and enjoy the many social areas that Celebrity has to offer. The buffet is open as soon as you get on board.

There are many social areas on this ship, such as restaurants, lounges, bars and outdoor areas including the pools and spas. During this time you might want to upgrade your beverage program, check out the spa programs, look for the conference room where we will be spending our week with our stitch gatherings or just relax and enjoy!

Maps of Ship

You can ask for a map of the ship at the terminal if you like one. You can view the map on-line at anytime. To get to our conference room head up to Deck 14 front of ship.

Muster Station - Safety Drill for All Passengers

For those who never cruised before, a heads up; there is a muster station drill before the ship leaves. The ship will conduct a mandatory muster station drill with briefing around 3:30 pm on the day of embarkation. It is done before the ship leaves the dock to ensure all passengers are aware of the safety procedures and is a US Coast Guard Requirement. A muster station drill is a brief instruction on life jackets and finding your muster station location.

All crew members will be wearing safety vests and directing you to your muster station around 3:20 pm. Your Muster Station will be noted on your ship card. (i.e., A4) If you are unsure where your muster station is, simply ask a uniformed crew member and they will guide you.

It is mandatory to attend this as the entire ship is searched to ensure all passengers are present during the muster. This lasts about 20 - 30 minutes. Please be mindful, don't talk during the announcements. It is for your safety and the passengers around you.

Once muster drill is finished, the ship resumes normal operations and begins to leave port shortly afterwards.

Meals & Drinks

Breakfast, lunch and snacks are up to you to where you want to eat. You have choices of buffet and/or formal sit down dining. We do not have any assigned areas for dining other than the casual dining of our group at 5:30 or 6 pm.

Special Dietary Needs

For those who require special meals such as gluten free. You will need to fill out a form with Sherry, so the ship is made aware and takes appropriate action. They will take care of your dietary needs by preparing special meals for you during the formal dining.

During the everyday meals, there are always options for all dietary requirements. The ship is prepared for this and know it's important as well. Please note that the ship might put you with others that are sensitive to gluten during the main dining, so please stay at your assigned seating for the duration of the cruise. In such instances, our round robin seating will not apply to you. This is for you assurance you are being looked after the staff.

Evening Traditional Dining

You will not go hungry on board. Our assigned seating time is at the one of Main Dining rooms as a group around 6:00 pm each evening. Dining room and table number will be in your cabin on a printed card.

Celebrity will be assigning us a dedicated area of the dining room. Guests in your cabin that are not part of our educational program will be sitting at your same table. Cabin mates that are together will also sit together. However, on the first night don't be alarmed if the seating is not perfect. Such as being with your friends that are in different cabins. After the first day, we are round robin style. You can sit with anybody within our group.

The ship has many restaurants on board that are considered above and beyond the inclusive package. These restaurants are booked by passengers once on board and are extra charge.

We won't deny the restaurants are exquisite. Should you feel you want to book yourself and some friends to a fancy restaurant, feel free to do so. We will not be offended if you do not show up during traditional dining. This is your vacation. Be mindful of our activity times when booking should you wish also to attend our get work-shops after dinner.

Dress Codes & Cruise Elegant

Casual Attire During The Day

We suggest casual pants, shorts, tops, etc. For the ladies, and for men; shorts, polo shirts, t-shirts, etc, will do. We suggest you wear rubber-soled, low heeled or flat shoes for extra traction while on-board. The use of any footwear with wheels, including but not limited, to Heelys© shoes, are prohibited on board the ship. The Conference Room could be cool or hot. Depends on the ship. Irons are not allowed on the ship

Meals Dress Codes

Buffet: Relaxed setting of casual attire at all times.

Casual Dining Room: Ladies can wear pants or skirts complimented with a sweater or blouse. Men can wear pants with a sports shirt or sweater. You can wear something more such a dress or casual suit coat if you want to.

Cruise Elegant: Twice during the cruise, there are two Cruise Elegant evenings. This is where the entire ship be dressed to impress. Gentlemen - Dress slacks, dress shirts. If you wish to wear suits and ties, by all means we invite you to do so. Ladies - Cocktail dresses, pantsuits, elegant skirts and blouses; if you'd like to show off your evening gowns, that's great too! Please don't feel this is a must, just look nice.

Not permitted in the dining room during the Cruise Casual Dinner for ladies and gentlemen: cut-off jeans, men's sleeveless shirts, gym or basketball shorts, baseball hats, flip-flops and bathing suit attire. You will be turned away at the door to either go back to your cabin to change or you can go to the buffet to eat where the setting is more relaxed.

Dress Appropriately

Be mindful that it can be cool out in the ocean and to dress appropriately for weather we may encounter during the cruise, this includes land locations. Bring rain gear and good waterproof shoes!

Cabins

Your cabins are cleaned twice a day. There are assigned housekeeping staff to your cabins for the duration of the cruise.

Your cabins are cleaned in the morning. The crew will return early evening to re-clean and turn down your bed.

The room steward will leave a copy of the ship's schedule for the next day for you, to know what is going on during the cruise. Note that we are a private group, our events are not on the ship's official program for all passengers to see.

During port days, there will be bottled water left for you. That is not free. There is a charge. However, purchasing this water with may be cheaper than buying water in the land destinations and may be better choices. Use your own discretion.

Do not leave any valuables lying around the room. There is an in-room electronic safe. Use it!

Please note, if you are using a CPAP for sleep apnea, please inform Sherry. Celebrity needs to have the information so they can provide you with distilled water and extension cords. You are not allow to bring your own extension cord. Don't delay on this information.

Decorate your cabin door? Yes, you can do that. You can only use magnets. Tape and anything adhesive is forbidden. Let us know if you decorated your door, we will have a list that you can add your cabin number for others to see too once we are on the ship.

Official Crochet Cruise Excursions

We have assigned excursions that you can book in advance for our cruise adventures. Sherry has arranged private tours just for The Crochet Crowd.

The tours range from sight seeing to snorkeling to mud baths to market shopping and cooking classes. These are completely optional and have an extra fee. Please note, that there are different tours to choose from, pick what you like best. Trust us, these tours are fabulous!

Also, please! If you need a walker or a wheelchair, please tell Sherry. Even though that some shore excursions say they are wheelchair friendly, some of these wheelchairs take up space on seats on the bus. The shore excursion directors just need to account for each seat space and make sure there is room allotted to store this type of equipment.

Some tours require strenuous walking and even climbing. Please ensure that the tour you choose is in line with your physical ability.

Please note: Deviating from the tour is strongly discourage. If you get separated from the group, it is your responsibility to find your way back to the ship at your expense. The tour company, Cruise Planners and the Crochet Cruises holds no responsibility for your own detour.

Sherry's List of Tours and Excursions

Port of Call Days

For those who haven't cruised before, port days are the days we are docked in exotic locations where passengers can get off the ship and explore. There are no costs to get off and back on. Take your official identification with you as they check it at the security gate when you return.

There are no assigned classroom times during docked times at ports. The ship has minimal operations open as most of the passengers get off the ship. You will find the shopping, casino and some food service areas are closed while docked. Do not be late when returning to the ship as the ship will leave without you. If you are tired, there is no obligation to show up for dinner or class. Maybe take a nap before dinner to refresh yourself.

In the unfortunate event that something happens to you while in port, be sure to take the necessary documents such as photo ID, credit card and/or passport with you. Should you miss the ship for reasons beyond your control, you will have what you need to help you. Again, travel insurance is always a good idea. However, we've yet to lose a crocheter and don't intend to this time either.

Important Tips

You can get on and off the ship to explore the location where the ship is docked. Most of the ports, you can get off and walk around to explore without having to spend money. Take the time to experience the culture.

Stay in the main areas around the port and keep a buddy or group with you.

Keep your money and identification on you. If you can easily get your money out of your purse or pocket, you are at risk. A little bit of security goes a long way.

The ship closes its doors 1/2 hour prior to departure. Times are clearly stated on itineraries issued by the ship and announced by the Captain and Cruise Directors. DO NOT BE LATE because the ship will leave you behind. Times are always determined by 'Ship's Time' not Port Time. So before you leave the ship, double check the time on the ship.

Currency - Money at Port of Calls

All ports of call that we will be visiting accept US Dollars as form of payment. Some locations will accept Visa and Mastercard.

Photographs

You will notice photographers will be roaming the ship throughout the cruise. There are also staged backdrops set up in the evenings for each cruise. It doesn't cost anything to get your photo taken in these areas. You just never know, they might take a really good shot of you and someone you care about.

Photos can be bought at anytime throughout the cruise that are on the wall ready for you. If you like a photo, be sure to purchase the night before the cruise ends. There are also deals, so watch out for them and save a bit of money by not being so quick to purchase. The photos stay up for the duration of the cruise.

There is also a formal photography service where you book a time and a designated area on the ship where you can pose for photos for professional quality photography. The grand stair case is a usually a popular photo backdrop.

You are welcome to take photos or videos of our classroom and group activities as they are happening. They make for good memories. Post to Facebook to make your friends at home jealous!

The Crochet Crowd Cruise Group Photo

We will be arranging a group photo to be taken of our entire group. We will have an assigned time and this must be arranged while on the ship. DO NOT BE LATE for the photo. We will not be taking attendance to find out who is missing to wait for you.

We will be taking 3 photos which include sponsor, formal and fun.

We will let you know on the ship where the photo will be taken and what day it will be done usually on the last formal night before supper, or in the morning on the last full day.

We want to roam the ship to see the best spot to get a group photo and what the photographers can do for our large group. This is why we do not have this information ready for you yet.

Cell Phones and Internet Services

Be sure to set your phone to airplane mode. You don't want to be surprised with hundreds of dollars in roaming charges when you get back home. Contact your cell phone provider to inquire on availability.

Internet services are provided on the ship. It is wireless and it is not free. If using the Internet, make sure you log out once done. Otherwise, the minutes will be used up. Once you run out of time, you need to buy another package. Use it wisely. Warning, it is SLOW!

Power Sources

While on the ship, you may need to re-charge your devices. The ship has regular power outlets for North America. You do not need any adapters if you have North American plugs. You are NOT allowed to bring extension cords.

Casino & Smoking Designations

Certain areas of the ship are designated for smoking. You will need to check on board where smoking is permitted. Celebrity has a no smoking policy in it's casino, night clubs, and specific areas on the open decks.

Poolside & Deck Chair Etiquette 30 Minutes

You will lose your towel and anything else left behind by crew officials as there is a 30 minute allowance for being away from a lounge chair. The Pool Butler will remove your items as they are keeping a watchful eye so that everyone may enjoy their cruise. You will need to retrieve them at lost and found. Save the hassle and don't leave your stuff if you plan on leaving for an extended period of time.

No Touching Policy

Cruise Lines strongly discourages passengers from touching each other. Getting sick on board a cruise ship is not fun and it's usually due to personal contact. There are hand washing stations. Use them!

While the ship crew makes great effort to keep surfaces and spaces clean, they recommend you keep hugging or touch to a minimum.

Seasickness & On-Board Illness

With the advancements of ship design and stabilization, the engineering of the ship is to give the smoothest ride possible. Often enough, sometimes the movement of the ship is not caused by the waves or the wind but by the ship engine pushing through the waters.

Depending on ocean conditions and winds, the ship may rock ever so slightly. Your body will automatically adjusted to motion of the boat. Congratulations, you've just received your 'sea legs'! If you are sensitive to vertigo or motion sickness, you can take some precaution in advance to help. See our below.

Sick Bay & Doctors on Ship

The doctors on board the cruise ship are private doctors and charge substantial rates for their services. Please bring with you the medications that you believe you may need. Purchasing medications on board the ship is really expensive, even for just Aspirin.

If you are hurt and require medical attention. Please go to Customer Services and/or Sick Bay. Sick Bay is located at the bottom level of the ship. See ship map that is issued on board to find its location.

If requiring urgent medical care, there are emergency teams on board the ship that will be dispatched to your location by dialing a dedicated easy number on the ship. If seeking medical treatment please notify Sherry immediately, by contacting her directly or leave a voice mail on her room phone. Celebrity will need to give permission for the ship staff to speak with to Sherry regarding medical treatment and insurance and PASSPORTS!

Consider Bringing the Following Medications

A mini emergency kit with band-aids etc, are highly recommended.

- The Travel Patch, prevents sea sickness with a patch that is put behind the ear.
- Sea-Bands, Wrist bands that put pressure on your nerves in your wrist to prevent nausea.
- Pain relievers.
- Pepto-Bismol (or similar type medications)

For personal prescriptions, the medications should be with their prescription packages from your doctor.

Please Note: That cruise lines do allow services dogs with proper paperwork to be on the ship. On occasions we also have them in our class. PLEASE, if you are allergic to dogs you must be prepared and bring any allergy medications you have. Under the privacy act and medical issues, we can not disclose any information in advance.

Love it Gift It

It's a privilege to cruise and even more so, to Crochet Cruise. Since the beginning, we have always worked on something that can benefit community off the ship at the end of the cruise. There are times when people in our lives need to be remembered when they are not feeling their best or going through difficult times like emotional or financial stress. The act of giving isn't a want, it's a human passionate emotion that is in us all. Sometimes, that passion is even for ourselves to be remembered and to do something that can lift our spirits to continue on.

In the years of crochet cruising, each cruise crocheter has a want to create more and more afghans to benefit charity. It's admirable and appreciated but we cannot lose sight that it is not a race or about how many afghans we complete by the end of the cruise. It's about the thought and care that you took to make the each afghan with care and love from all of us. For many of us, this project becomes your social project to do on board throughout the week. We do hope you finish by the end of the cruise for the final photography.

Revision 1

Crochet Cruise Homework

Skill Level: Intermediate | Size: 9" Square | Hook: 5.5 mm / I

Finished Project

46" x 58" using 20 squares and finishing border.

Inspiration - Lite Brite

Your main colour will be something where the rest of the colours will pop out from.

- Maybe choose a light background with darker colours being the pop out colours.
- Even dark background and vibrant colours popping out like the game of Lite Brite.
- I can also see this throw being similar in family colours where the balls are different shades of the same colour family like blues or pinks.

Go shopping or choose from your personal yarn collections to bring all of the yarn you need for this project. Most times, our community yarns don't have the exact colours people want. This time, bring all of the yarn you wish to play with to ensure you will be completely satisfied with your finished example.

In recognition of packing the yarn. Here are some suggestions. Original was completed using Caron One Pound.

Caron One Pound - 812 Yards per Ball, 5.5 mm / I Hook

- 2 Balls - (MC) Dark Grey Mix (background colour) 1 ball + 80% of the second. (1460 yards)
- 1 Ball - Contrast A Dark Pink 75% of the ball. (610 yards)
- 1 Ball - Contrast B Pumpkin 60% of the ball. (490 yards)
- 1 Ball - Contrast C Aqua 60% of the ball. (490 yards)
- 1 Ball - Contrast D Sunflower 60% of the ball. (490 yards)

OR

Red Heart Super Saver or Bernat Super Value - 364 Yards per Ball, 5.5 mm / I Hook

It's assumed you are using solid colour balls as variegated are less yards.

- 4 Balls - MC
- 2 Balls - Contrast A
- 2 Balls - Contrast B
- 2 Balls - Contrast C
- 2 Balls - Contrast D

OR

Caron Simply Soft - 315 Yards per Ball - Use 5 mm / H Hook Instead. Assumed using solid colours.

- 5 Balls - MC
- 2 Balls - Contrast A
- 2 Balls - Contrast B
- 2 Balls - Contrast C
- 2 Balls - Contrast D

Online shopping can be done at Yarnspirations.com and other comparable sites for the yarn recommendations.

Colour Options Suggested by Daniel and Testers

You will see on the ship the order or A - D. For the flowers, use any colours of Contrast A - D.

Quickest Way to Crochet

When cars are made, each person or station in the assembly plant is responsible for a particular task. This allows that person or equipment to be the expert of that particular portion of the car. Crochet is no different.

For this, I would do all 20 squares first. Use only MC for all of the squares. While you have creative choice to make your squares a variety of colours, for this particular throw, it will look better if each square is the same full colour.

Flowers - Make 20

For the flowers, use the assembly line method. For illustration purposes, I did the first flower complete to see my colouring. The remaining 19 I did round 1 for each. I then round 2A for each in a different colour. For rounds 2B and 3, I did at the same time as they use the same colour. I'm recommending rounds 2B and 3 be the same colour.

Recommendation of Identification

Cruisers tend to spread themselves out in the conference. I recommend you mark your squares and flowers with something unique. This helps another cruiser for not mistaking your square as their own.

Crocheters can also lose squares or pieces. I'm recommending you put your squares in a bag and flowers in a separate bag. Cruisers usually find their missing pieces in the bottom of their yarn bags or they accidentally drop them somewhere.

For those who have never done a crochet cruise, we would like to complete an afghan but a significant portion of the afghan needs to be made in advance such as the squares.

In the past, we have swapped squares but we are not recommending it for this community project. The challenge of each crocheter having their own tensions which creates squares to be really small or way too big is an issue. However, you are the artist, if you wish to swap squares, you may do so but it's not part of our program.

The project is texturally amazing but with texture, using words to describe where to stick the hook can be very lengthy. As part of your challenge, you are going to be given only diagrams for this. On the ship, we will review each of the steps and extra hints will be added to the diagrams that are usually not present and assumed.

This is your opportunity to learn diagrams through real-time practice.

Make 20 Squares using Main Colour (MC)

Fasten off ends and weave them in so you are completely ready to go on the cruise.

Bring with you the remaining ball(s) you have of the main colour as you will need it to complete later on the ship.

Instead of slip stitching to finish. Use a Half Double Crochet to join.

Crochet in this direction.

Make 20 Squares Mixing Contrasting Colours A - D

You can have all of your flowers different in colouring if you wish or have all colours in the same colours.

Bring with you the remaining of Contrasting Colours with you as you will need them to complete the project.

How do you know which way to follow a diagram?

Look to the slip stitch. The slip stitch is generally the last item of a set of instructions. If the slip stitch is on the right of the closest stitch, you following going counter-clockwise. If the slip stitch is on the left of the closest stitch, follow clock-wise.

It is a myth that diagrams are left and right handed. Use your eyes and follow the diagram and complete the steps as required.

Make 20 flowers. Original sample has all 20 being the same colour strategy.

Tip: To complete a round on the wrong side, turn the project around to see the wrong side and begin. To crochet on the right side, turn the project so the good side is facing you.

Assigned Conference Time

Our goal is to get you started with a few workshop times so you can really kick this off. The remainder of the cruise days can be completed throughout the cruise. If we are having other workshops that you may want to opt out of and continue to work on this afghan, you are most welcome to do so. We ask that you sit towards the back of the classroom to allow those who wish to move onto something new to have prime seats in the front of the classroom. We also ask that during teaching times, though you may be working on your afghan, to keep silent to let us go through our lesson. The classes are not 100% teaching, Our classes are kicked off and then a good percentage of the class is free flowing with social time to continue to work on the assigned workshop.

Final Take Away

The goal of this exercise is to expand yourself, push yourself, and produce something that may even surprise you. Working with squares that are not yours will force you to compromise, tweak and may even frustrate you. That's the point. We are each unique and crocheting is not about specifically following a pattern but knowing where to tweak to make it your very own. You may find lessons you have learned through the unexpected obstacles you may have faced. But most importantly, it's the act of giving and sharing. Thank you for being part of our charity project!

For this cruise, you can take home the afghans you create. You have the choice to either gift your afghan to a local charity in your region and/or keep it to enjoy your new memories you made with us. If we do have volunteers that are willing to take the afghans to their local charity, we would greatly appreciate that. However, there are no guarantees that we have enough volunteers that would be willing to take the 100 afghans to their local charity. The future of your project is in your hands.

Sound & Video System, Lighting

We will be using a microphone system this year and overhead screen projection to make learning easier. We hope it works, you just never know.

It might be a good idea to bring a head lamp if lightening is an issue for you. The Conference Rooms are equipped with pot lights but sometimes they are just mood lighting only. We can not guarantee the best lighting.

The Crochet Crowd Cruise Schedule

When we do the Crochet Cruises, we work on classes on ports days and sea days. There is not a lot of time & room choices for us that can accommodate everyone. NOTE: We do not have classes during the times we are docked. Be prepared that during port days we might have one in the morning before we arrive in port or in the evening after supper. Each class is 1 1/2 hr long.

There will be days that you will be tired. The good news and most excursions do not last the whole day; therefore, giving you time to have a quick nap before the evening starts. Pace yourself out during the week.

We have an assigned classroom time approved by Carnival. If you are tired or have made other plans, you are not obligated to attend every scheduled meet up. This is your vacation. We want you to have a great time.

Also, please note that not all times will be perfect for everyone. There are some class times that are beyond our control due to other groups on board the cruise ship, ports of calls and entertainment that may use the same space. The cruise ships must make it work for everyone. Not just us. There are a lot of entertainment and amenities on board the ship going on at the same time. Choose what you want to do. This information will be on your badges once you arrive on the ship.

You must be present at the class to get awarded the draws/gifts assigned for the class. Don't feel obligated to show up if you prefer to be somewhere else.

Going Home Planning

You will be receiving supplies with your activity fee. You should plan on extra space in you luggage and/or to carry on luggage on the way home.

You are receiving supplies to finish projects being taught on the ship so you can complete them at home.

SMILE,
Wake Up
Happy
enjoy having your crochet project in your hand.

Say Hello to Fellow Crochet Cruisers

Our leadership team will try to make great effort to remember all of the passengers. Please wear your Crochet Cruise Lanyard, we will be able to identify each other much easier. In the event that we walk by any crochet cruiser without saying hello or offer a genuine smile, it's not personal. We may have not seen you and/or don't recognize you. Just simply say hello and our brains will kick in! We are coordinating and sometimes deep in thought or moving from one place to another on a 'crochet-related' mission.

Self Social Yourself

Please take the opportunity to self socialize throughout the cruise. While we offer an inclusive classroom safe space, it is your responsibility to mingle and get to know your fellow crochet cruisers.

Enjoy our classroom activities to talk with other crocheters and share your stories. We strongly encourage you to not sit at the same location for each workshop or event. While as humans, we tend to find our seats on the first event and gravitate towards sitting at the same space each time, it limits our opportunities to spread ourselves around to meet others.

We do not assign tables in our workshop space. We strongly encourage you as you arrive to sit with other crocheters with empty chairs at the same tables that are filling up instead of finding tables with no one sitting there.

Don't exclude yourself. After the first evening, not all dining room tables fill up as cruisers skip the formal dinner for shows, specialty restaurants or for other reasons.

Please Respect Privacy

While we are together as a group, remember that each and every person is on board may want some privacy or time to spend on their own or with family/friends. This is after all, your vacation and theirs too.

We have an open policy for the lounging deck to come and join the group without an invitation required.

If you see crocheters outside of the this lounging deck such as dining, lounges, ports and much more, be sure to ask permission before inviting yourself to sit with other crochet cruisers to be respectful. They may want their own personal time and we need to respect that.

Yarn and Course Materials

All yarn and course materials have been carefully chosen and sponsored by Yarnspirations.com and TheCrochetCrowd.com. As well as Sugar Bush Yarns and Jimmy Beans. There will be an array of yarns that you may or may not have tried before. The point of the Crochet Cruises is to try new things. If you do not like the yarn, suck it up buttercup! If you get a color you don't prefer, just ask a neighbor or potentially bribe them with snacks if you need to. It's worked in the past. :) We do yarn exchanges too!

Patterns on Board

The patterns chosen have been intentionally chosen to educate and learn new techniques or ideas. For each class we come up with an option. Mikey will only teach one. We will be creating a pattern book for you to enjoy. The class may break off into mini groups where a leader at the table may be helping with the pattern.

Course Materials

The course materials were provided by Yarnspirations.com and TheCrochetCrowd.com for those who participate with the Crochet Cruises.

We have agreed with our sponsors that gifts are to only be given to guests who actually participate.

Participants who attend all of our events will be receiving all of the available course materials.

Non Active Participants

Only registered guests that are crocheting actively with our group will be receiving the course materials. Guests will forfeit their course materials for the duration of the cruise if they are not participating. Examples include:

- Showing up at the beginning of the class and leaving.
- Showing up but not crocheting or participating with our group.
- Spouses, friends or others sitting quietly who are not crocheting with our group.

No Activity Fee Refunds

Each cruiser is given yarn, implements, workshop materials and instructional time that exceeds the value of the activity fee that was charged. In the event that you are not satisfied with the Crochet Cruises, there will be no refunds offered.

Please Note: The activity fee includes a portion of the costs for the course materials. The activity fee also covers administrative fees require to produce this event on the ship.

Classroom Etiquettes

Negative Nelly's and Judging Judy's

With so much going on the ship plus crochet activities we have planned, you may experience exhaustion. Take time for you, but do not disrespect to others if you are feeling tired and are getting cranky. We might not like the pattern or the yarn but those issues are beyond our control to please everyone.

Give each other some space. The ship is very large and there is a lot of things happening. We have a lot of people and everyone has a different personality and etiquette styles. Just be mindful that each passenger is unique with a common interest of crochet.

Please be aware. When we get a full room of excited crocheters together, that room is NOISY. We ask kindly, when Mikey/Diva Dan, or any crocheter cruiser are speaking to the class, please have absolute silence! If you have missed something during the class teaching, don't panic! Michael is excellent at reversing back and making sure everybody is on the same page.

Some may find it hard to concentrate when the room gets a little noisy but lets be honest, the conversations between people are what makes this cruise fun and enjoyable. Remember, it is about the connections and friendships that we are here to make. Crocheting is just another fun element to the enjoyment.

Behavior Policy

As always, The Crochet Crowd focuses on positive creativity within our learning environment. It is easy to say something negative but please think before you speak. We all want to have a good time.

Disruptive behavior is behavior which may include speech or actions will result in the removal of a guest from attending any further workshops and events by The Crochet Crowd while on the ship. Actions may include:

- Disrespectful, offensive, and/or threatening.
- Interferes with the learning activities of other crocheters.
- Impedes the teaching abilities of The Crochet Crowd.
- Demonstrates a negative impact the learning environment.
- Disruptive behavior includes physically, verbally or psychologically harassing, threatening, or acting abusively toward an instructor, staff member, or another guest.

Services Beyond Our Control

Generally, we are easy to please and are grateful for the services extended by any crew member. While we can control what happens in the classroom. We cannot control your experiences of what happens with the rest of your cruise. If you are unhappy with the services extended to you by the cruise line, please go to guest services to address your concerns. They will address the issue the best they can and within reason and regulations of the cruise line.

Strictly No Soliciting on Board

The cruise line has a strict 'no soliciting policy' in effect on board. You may not approach passengers to solicit, hand out materials or advertise The Crochet Crowd, Crochet Cruises or our sponsors. This is for the protection of all passengers and crew members. Members of the Crochet Cruises who are caught soliciting will be removed for any further activities for the remainder of the cruise and will not be able to cruise with our party in future cruises. However, if someone ask you about the group, you are more then welcome to tell them about us and our activity.

Our party on board is classified as a private function and not part of the over all ships itinerary.

No Additional Seats

Our assigned group on board is known to the cruise line. We may not invite any non-registered crocheters to be a part of our party while on the cruise. You cannot bring them to our workshops as we are assigned just enough chairs for our party. So basically, no party crashers!

Final Words

We honestly cannot express how excited we get when it comes time to jump on board the Crochet Cruises with all of you. Over the years and working with Sherry, we have discovered a whole new and wonderful side of working and being together with our friends and soon to be new friends. We have developed amazing relationships, memorable laughs and, of course, we all came together as a open, passionate, and loving community. That community, we've strive to be caring and always with open arms because we all have our stories that make us who we are. We just need to listen and understand.

We always wanted to make crochet fun. To get it out of the box; that stuffy conference atmosphere and go have some fun, dance the night away, explore and have adventures with stories to share afterwards.

With our busy schedule working with Yarnspirations, the Crochet Cruises is our get away to be inspired and energized about crochet but as you all know, organizing and hosting such an event is a lot of intensive work. Thanking our sponsors is very important to us and we hope after the cruise you take the time to thank them sincerely via email.

We are sure that you will feel at home with us, after all personally, we are two guys that as we like to say, 'everyday people who just want to have some fun'. You may see us as YouTube celebs, but deep down, we are just like you, passionate and a love for yarn and crochet.

Welcome to the Crochet Cruises! We will be seeing you all very soon!

Photos & Videos Consent

Upon purchasing the Crochet Crowd Activity Fee and as stated in our disclaimers on our website; photos and videos will be taken throughout the cruise and possibly used in future promotions and/or displayed on social media such as Facebook. We are very sensitive to respect 'horrible' face shots. It happens to all of us. Diva Dan is one to be very concerned with those issues and takes care to edit photos with respect to all.

Spelling and Grammar

The Crochet Crowd is controlled by Michael Sellick and Daniel Zondervan, Creative Directors and Video Hosts. You may find grammatical errors or typos in this document. While we try our very best and we are all human, a few errors may slip between the stitches which only makes this article more interesting. That's our excuse and we are sticking to it.
